

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW SPECIAL FOCUS ON SCHOOLS

DATE: March 15th, 2019
TIME: 1-3pm
LOCATION: The Kearney Center
2650 Municipal Way
Tallahassee, FL 32304
COST: FREE CERTIFICATE TRAINING

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

What is human trafficking and what does it look like in our area?
How do you recognize and respond if you suspect human trafficking?
Who does human trafficking impact and what can be done?

THIS MONTH WILL FEATURE:

Our guest speaker this month is Michelle Gaines, the Title IV, Part A Director for the Florida Department of Education. She will be speaking on "Exposing Trafficking in the Educational Arena". This training will address how schools are impacted and identify actionable next steps for teachers, administrators, support staff, parents and all Floridians. Understanding your role in prevention and eradication of human trafficking is the ultimate goal of this training.

SPECIAL NOTE: PARKING CAN BE LIMITED SO PLEASE ARRIVE EARLY OR CARPOOL.

REGISTRATION & CONTACT INFORMATION

Please register by March 14th by emailing your name and contact information to:

STAC@surviveandthriveadvocacy.org
Questions? Email or call STAC at 850.597.2080

JOINTLY SPONSORED BY

